

The Alexandria Commission on HIV/AIDS

in collaboration with the Torpedo Factory, our community partners, and Honorary Chair Mayor William D. Euille

Invite you to join us in a community gathering for Northern Virginia's largest AIDS Memorial Quilt Display at the Torpedo Factory (105 North Union Street) on Wednesday, July 25th from 6:00-8:00PM

Panels of the AIDS Memorial Quilt will be on display at the Torpedo Factory from Friday, July 20th – Wednesday, July 25th

Help us Raise Awareness in Our Community during the XIX International AIDS Conference being held in Washington, D.C.

Did you know...?

- Alexandria has the highest HIV/AIDS rate in Northern Virginia--
- The rate in Alexandria is almost twice as high as Arlington County and more than 7 times as high as Fairfax County--
- Alexandria's infection rate is three times above the state rate--
- African-Americans are twice as likely to contract HIV/AIDS than any other race--

Remember and Recommit to ending HIV/AIDS in Alexandria
